

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR SHORT-TERM RESEARCH INTERNSHIPS IN THE
DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FLACSO/ARGENTINA

Applicants to carry out a research internship in the Department of International Relations at FLACSO must meet the following requirements:

1. Application form for research stays
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. Letter of endorsement from the institution to which it belongs
4. The names and contact information of two referees. (We will contact them, if needed, later).
5. Cover letter indicating the calendar month the applicant proposes to come to FLACSO), the title of the proposed research project, and an explanation for reasons to be at FLACSO (i.e., use the library, look at particular archives, work with members of the Department, etc.)
6. A statement (indicating why they were interested in doing the internship in the Department, their research topic and title, the contribution of the internship to it, and if they are interested in working with one or more researchers from the Department of International Relations).

After receiving the corresponding materials, they will be notified of their acceptance as soon as possible. Once accepted, applicants must commit to:

1. Make a presentation on the topic being researched during the course of the internship
2. Submit a short article (max 15 pages) on the research topic
3. Submit a report on the work carried out during the research stay.

Visiting Fellows will be expected to devote themselves to research and participate regularly in the Department of International Relations scholarly activities at FLACSO Argentina. The work location for this position is in-person on campus at FLACSO Argentina.

With this, the Department is committed to providing the physical space and the possibility of discussing its research topics in an academic environment.